Fairgrounds, Grass Valley, CA
July 12-15, 2012

Daytime Stages — 9:30am – 5pm
 Evening Stages — 5:30pm – 10:30pm

See worldfest.net for complete daytime and evening schedules

WORLD FEST CHORUS — New for 2012, Warren Haskell directs the chorus. Rehearse and then perform Sunday in Discovery Stage. Songs are available on worldfest.net. All voices welcome!

NATIVE PEOPLE'S VILLAGE — Hosted by the Tsi-Akim Maidu Tribe. Spend time in the fabulous Bark House and teepees and learn about traditional tools, crafts, music, drumming and healing from Tribal members. Native flute, drum, song and dance will open WorldFest on Thursday evening.

SOUL SHAKE DANCE CHURCH — Shake your body and free your spirit with a DJ'd dance wave featuring funk, hip hop, trance, ambient, drum and more. Sure to wake the soul.

UKULELE UNIVERSITY — Bring your uke! All ages, all skills welcome.

WORKSHOPS: SING! DANCE! PLAY! YOGA & TAI CHI — Enjoy instrumental, dance and vocal workshops hosted by many artists, and join the daily Jammin' 101 music sessions. Have fun with African, folk and belly dance. Morning Yoga is with Jo Dee, Maura & Paula. Cool Down Yoga in the Welcome Stage is from 6-7pm so bring your yoga mat, relax, and get ready for a night of dancing. Tai Chi in the mornings with Julie make the weekend complete.

FOOD & DRINK — Sample specialty dishes from around the world freshly prepared each day. Sierra Nevada Beer, Mountain People's organic wine and Knudsen Spritzers wet your whistle and you are welcome to bring your own meals. Please, no glass or alcohol may be brought into the performance area.

WORLD FEST MARKETPLACE for CD's and T-SHIRTS — Shop for the California WorldFest 2012 t-shirt design by renowned artist David Hurst; hurry, cuz they sell fast. Meet & Greet the performers as they sign CDs throughout the weekend.

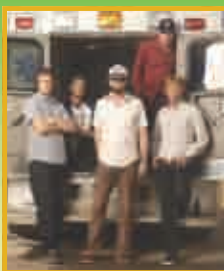

GLOBAL ARTISANS — Browse African and South American imports, custom jewelry, Indonesian clothing, handcrafts and arts.

SUSTAINABLE WORLD FEST — Thanks for helping us do our part . . . share a ride to WorldFest (www.spaceshare.com/world-fest), look for our new composting collection bins, bring your reusable water bottle to fill at the Fairgrounds water stations (all Fairgrounds water is potable), and always, always use the recycle bins.

KVMR Broadcasts Live!!! — Our friends at KVMR radio continue their 4th decade of great radio, again broadcasting the festival on 89.5 FM and at KVMR.org. Support community radio and turn your radio on!

The WORLD 8 STAGES OF MUSIC

CAKE (sat) From alt rock to country to mariachi to funk to Iranian folk to hip hop, CAKE has forged their own path to superstardom while taking their environmental and human rights activism around the globe. Big fun ahead on Music Meadow!

Mumbo Gumbo (thur) Their genre bending Americana guarantees dancing and smiling to driving rockabilly, country waltzes, and hip shaking cumbias.

Ani DiFranco (fri) The queen of edgy, fusion folk mixes a fierce vocal energy with witty, incisive lyrics and groove-oriented guitar backed by legendary drummer Herlin Riley.

Nigerian Brothers (fri) Sweet lilting sounds touch Afro-beat, highlife and a hint of jazz wrapped together with the indigenous sounds of Nigerian village life.

Tommy Emmanuel (sun) Simply put, Tommy Emmanuel is Australia's guitar genius and WorldFest's most requested artist. Hold on to your hat!

Joe Craven Trio (sat, sun) Exploring bluegrass, blues, swing, and funk along with the music of Brazil, Haiti, Ireland and Puerto Rico; no stone left unturned.

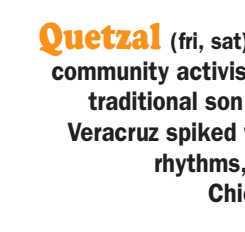

Novalima (sun) A joyous whirlwind of sound and song, their Latin Grammy nominated blend of Afro-Peruvian roots music, dub reggae, and chilled out electronica is guaranteed to have Music Meadow up and dancing.

Fishtank Ensemble (sat, sun) Electrifying stage persona combines operatic scat, smoking jazz, frenetic screaming violin, and flying flamenco riffs.

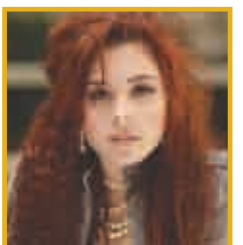

Delhi 2 Dublin (fri, sat) The runaway hit of last year's WorldFest is a non-stop global dance party blending Bhangra, Celtic, reggae and electronica.

Quetzal (fri, sat) Fostering community activism through traditional son jarocho of Veracruz spiked with urban rhythms, R&B, and Chicano rock.

Meklit Hadero (sat) Ethiopian born Meklit's soul-filled phrasing touches jazz, folk, hip-hop and art-rock, co-mingled with a touch of Africa.

Amanda Shaw & the Cute Guys (sat, sun) Blazing fiddle player Amanda explodes with her blistering take on Cajun music; get ready for the Louisiana fais do-do!

Matt Andersen (sat, sun) Canadian blues man extraordinaire pays homage to B.B King, Eric Clapton and most specially the Mississippi Delta blues.

California Guitar Trio (thur, fri) Unparalleled technical virtuosity creates a guitar lover's dream from Beethoven to Piqueen to the surf rock of Pipeline.

Fudan University Glee & Dance (sun) Shanghai's premier 70 member chorus and dance troupe helps us celebrate the Year of the Dragon.

D visits us!

DANCE, WORKSHOPS

Rupa & the April Fishes

(thur, fri) Dr. Rupa mixes Argentinean tango, Latin cumbias, Indian ragas and Gypsy swing with thought-provoking lyrics to build bridges.

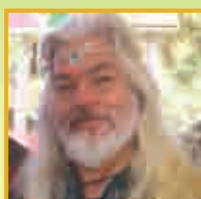

Talavya (sat, sun) Formerly Tabla Ecstasy, they glide between meditative trance and explosive rock drum power featuring complex Indian rhythms.

Professor Merloch Silvermaine

(sat, sun) A strolling Seer, Sage, Sorcerer, and Storyteller whose magical powers are not about tricks, but about life itself.

The Railflowers

(thur, fri) Gorgeous, sweet, soothing sister harmonies create a tightly woven tapestry of traditional folk and Americana stories.

Califa

(thur, fri) Members of Fishtank Ensemble & The Plotz combine female vocals and hot violin flying through a diversity of musical cultures.

LoCura

(sun) Deep musical roots fuse rumba, flamenco, reggae and Cuban son into a high energy salsa band. Dancing required!

MaMuse (fri, sat) Sweet soulful folk served with a splash of uplifting, heartfelt, storytelling lyrics sung in haunting harmony.

Plus

Sid Lewis' Acoustic College – Bring your instruments for lessons and jams. Troika Folk Dance Band, African Dance with Baba & Music Workshops throughout the weekend. Late night drumming workshop with the Sacramento Drum Circle. The WorldFest Chorus and Open Mic – You are the star!

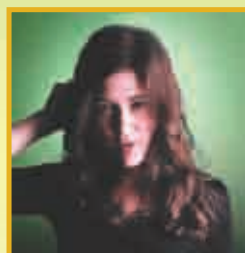

Jessica Fichot

(sat, sun) Multi-ethnic heritage of Chinese/French/American leads the listener into the lands of French chanson, Chinese history and Latin folk.

Ruth Moody Band

(fri, sat) From the Wailin' Jennys, Canadian Ruth is the real deal; fabulous voice, extraordinary songwriter, and virtuoso multi-instrumentalist.

Break of Reality

(sat, sun) Cinematic rock and cello thunder roar through musical influences of heavy metal, classical, and indie rock. Look out!

Brittni Paiva (sun) The preeminent female ukulele player from Hawaii, influenced by jazz, rock, flamenco, classical and traditional Hawaiian melodies.

ERTH's Dinosaur Petting Zoo

(sat, sun) Amazing prehistoric creatures come to life, including teeth gnashing Tyrannosaurus Rex and lovable baby dinosaurs through the magic of Australian puppetry.

Rosie Burgess Trio

(fri, sat) Urban folk sensation Rosie slides from folk to blues to roots rock and back, firing off energy like an illegally sparked firecracker!
