WORLDVEST CHORUS — Warren Haskell directs the chorus. Go online at worldfest.net for a preview of tunes, then rehearse and perform on Sunday on the Discovery Stage. All voices welcome!

NATIVE PEOPLE'S VILLAGE — Spend time in the fabulous Bark House and teepees and learn about traditional tools, crafts, music, drumming and healing from Tribal members. Join the Tsi-Akim Maidu and other Native People as native flute, drum, song and dance open WorldFest on Thursday evening.

SOUL SHAKE DANCE CHURCH — Shake your body and free your spirit with a DJ'd dance wave featuring funk, hip hop, trance, ambient, drum and more. Sure to wake the soul.

UKULELE UNIVERSITY — Bring your uke! All ages, all skills welcome.

WORKSHOPS: SING! DANCE! PLAY! YOGA & TAI CHI & MEDITATION WITH THE MONKS

— Special this year: Morning meditations with the Tibetan Monks of the Drepung Loseling Monastery, Fri-Sun. Enjoy instrumental, dance and vocal workshops hosted by many artists, and join the daily jam sessions. Dance workshops all festival in African, South American, folk and belly dance. Morning Yoga with Jo Dee, Maura & Paula plus Cool Down Yoga in the evening. Tai Chi in the mornings with Julie make the weekend complete.

FOOD & DRINK — Sample specialty dishes from around the world freshly prepared each day. Sierra Nevada Beer, Mountain People's CalNatural organic wine and Knudsen Spritzers wet your whistle and you are welcome to bring your own meals. Please, no glass or alcohol may be brought into the performance area.

WORLDVEST MARKETPLACE for CD's and T-SHIRTS — Shop for the California WorldFest 2013 t-shirt design by renowned artist Pinky LaFarge; hurry, cuz they sell fast. Meet & Greet the performers as they sign CDs throughout the weekend.

GLOBAL ARTISANS — Browse African and South American imports, custom jewelry, Indonesian clothing, handcrafts and arts.

SUSTAINABLE WORLDVEST — Thanks for helping us do our part . . . share a ride to WorldFest (www.spaceshare.com/worldfest), look for our new composting collection bins, bring your reusable water bottle to fill at the Fairgrounds water stations (all Fairgrounds water is potable), and always, always use the recycle bins.

KVMR Broadcasts Live!!! — Our friends at KVMR radio continue their 4th decade of great radio, again broadcasting the festival on 89.5 FM and at KVMR.org. Support community radio and turn your radio on!

A WORLD OF 8 STAGES OF MUSIC

PINK MARTINI (sat)

If the United Nations had a house band it would be the 12-member strong Pink Martini. Piano virtuoso Thomas Lauderdale leads a visit to a fanciful samba parade in Rio, a 1930s French cabaret, a side journey to Japan and much more.

BADI ASSAD (sat, sun)

Sister of Brazilian superstars the Assad Brothers, combines virtuoso guitar with astounding Bobby McFerrin-like vocal virtuosity.

ALISON BROWN

QUARTET (thur, fri)

Defying categorization, the amazing banjo maestro touches bluegrass, newgrass, jazz, classical, Celtic, world and much more.

MOSHAV (fri, sun)

One of Israel's finest exports offers a blend of Middle East flavors, reggae and folk/rock fused with hopeful Jewish spiritual insights.

BRUCE HORNSBY & THE NOISEMAKERS

(fri) Singer, pianist, accordion player, songwriter extraordinaire, Bruce has done it all from rock n roll to jazz to bluegrass, and played with Dylan, CS&N, Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Grateful Dead, Bonnie Raitt . . . Music Heaven ahead!

VIEUX FARKA TOURE

(sun) The son of Malian guitarist Ali Farka Touré inherited his dad's dazzling phrasing while embracing fiery African desert blues rock.

BRUCE COCKBURN

(sun) A special solo show by Canadian singer/songwriter/guitarist extraordinaire, simply among our world's best. And, we are lucky.

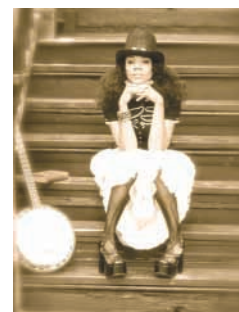

YEMEN BLUES (thur, fri)

Shouting their message of unity for all through the grooves of funk, mambo, blues, and soulful ancient folk traditions. Dancing ahead.

DELHI 2 DUBLIN

(fri, sat) WorldFest favs guarantee worn out dancing shoes in a non-stop global dance party blending Bhangra, Celtic, reggae and electronica.

MAMAJOWALI

(fri, sat) AfroAmericana with Joe Craven's mandolin/violin/percussion, Mali's ngoni maestro Mamadou Sidibe and guitarist Walter Strauss.

MARTHA REDBONE ROOTS PROJECT

(thur, fri) Retro, modern, indie fuse with prewar string-band instrumentation and heartfelt mountain holler blues, soul and indigenous music.

ALASDAIR FRASER

(sat) Renowned Scottish fiddle master's flawless virtuosity and improvisation continues to push Scotland's jigs & reels around the globe.

MYSTICAL ARTS OF TIBET (fri-sun)

Monks of Drepung Loseling Monastery share authentic multi-phonetic singing, spine tingling chants and incredible Mandala sand painting.

OF MUSIC! DANCE, WORKSHOPS

MASANGA MARIMBA ENSEMBLE (fri, sat)

A rhythmic extravaganza exploring Latin American and African influenced tunes while blurring the lines of cultural borders.

RITA HOSKING & COUSIN JACK

(sat, sun) Not quite old-timey, not quite bluegrass, but a whole lotta country folk mixed with fabulous songwriting. Emmylou meets Gillian.

BROTHERS COMATOSE

(thur, fri) First class Americana, old-timey and bluegrass musicians melding original string music and sweet vocals with good time exuberance.

RUNA (thur, fri) Celtic high energy, blazing step dancing, graceful acoustic melodies and tight harmonies embellished with virtuoso musicianship.

MAMUSE (sun)

Garrison Keillor favorites, their lively and lilting melodies and intricate harmonies enrich a haunting, joyful a Cappella sensibility.

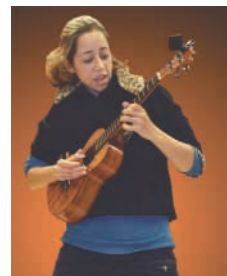

JEFFERY BROUSSARD & THE CREOLE COWBOYS

(sat, sun) One of the most influential accordionists and vocalist in modern Zydeco music; joyous dancing and hot, hot, hot.

BRITTNI PAIVA (sat)

The preeminent female ukulele player from Hawaii, influenced by jazz, rock, flamenco, classical and traditional Hawaii melodies.

LEFTOVER CUTIES

(sat, sun) Vintage jazz-pop for the speakeasies of today combine ukulele and accordion with French horn, maraca, trumpet, bass and drum.

INCENDIO (sun)

Los Angeles Latin guitar world fusion features smokin' guitar of mambo, samba, Celtic, flamenco and world grooves.

BRIGA (fri, sat) Fervent violin firmly rooted in eastern European and Gypsy folk, influenced by Bulgarian wedding tunes and French chanson.

BANANA SLUG STRING BAND

(sat, sun) Exploring science, ocean ecosystems, and being green through the music of rock, funk/rap, zydeco, bluegrass, reggae and country.

PROFESSOR MERLOCH SILVERMAINE (sat, sun)

A strolling Seer, Sage, Sorcerer, and Storyteller whose magical powers are not about tricks, but about life itself.

The Novelists (sun)

WorldFest Fan Choice winners feature storytelling singer-songwriters, four-part harmonies and sublime musicianship.
